
My 50th - Dec 3rd - 12th

Sin Nombre Canyon, CA - Dec 5-8.

This is it. I made it to full on adulthood and I'd like you to celebrate with me.

The above photo was taken from a vantage point looking down at the canyon entrance. The van in the distance is our trusty steed, with entrance to the canyon to its right.

We may end up taking the instruments, sound system, staging & lights, weather dependent. Thanks to Farrokh we will also jam at Sunset Sound:

We need to coordinate food, drinks, tents and bedding. To that end, please take a look at the grid below. Ill set up a zoom meeting so we can discuss everything together.

All my Love,
Michel

The Plan

Arrive in LA, ideally Burbank (BUR) Dec 3rd.

Depart for Sin Nombre, Dec 5th.

Sin Nombre, Dec 5 - 8th.

Sunset Sound Jam Dec 9 or 10th.

Depart LA, Dec 11-13th.

Please Bring

1. Tent
2. Mattress
3. Sleeping bag
4. An instrument if you must. We have everything here, just a matter of coordinating.

Food and Drinks

Im planning on bringing enough rice and daal to cook khitchri on sight for us all. Ill also have enough water. Everything else needs to be coordinated.

Last time we went Kito and I went to Trader Joe's and bought a bunch of their pre-made meals. That was awesome, but keeping things cool became an issue. It would take about 3 hours, roundtrip, to leave the sight to buy ice and other supplies.

Items to coordinate (incomplete list)

1. Drinks - beer, wine, whatever else.
2. Munchies
3. Food other than khitchri.
4. Transportation - rent a pickup truck.
5. Generator or battery pack - will rent or purchase.
