Dear Harry,

Everything went off remarkably well in Dacca. Our programmes were carried on major American networks and articles based on radio interviews appeared in The New York Times - an editorial - Wall Street Journal, the Philadelphia Enquirer and in newspapers in other countries as well.

I feel strongly that this success would not have been possible without the cheerful, active and competent co-operation provided by Mr. Robert J. Tyabaji. Let me express the gratitude of WHO, both at headquarters and at regional level to UNICEF for making his professional services available to us.

I hope we will have another opportunity to work in cooperation with UNICEF in the South-East region.

Sincerely,

Nedd Willard
